WE ARE HERE TO HELP

Formerly known as Larox Flowsys, Flowrox has more than 40 years of experience in filtration, flow control, elastomer technology and technical textiles. Through the acquisition of American Spare Parts Depot, Inc., we re-entered the filter business. Why? Because we care and want to help you by offering our professional support.

KEY TO SUCCESS: LONG-TERM COOPERATION

Flowrox does not only deal spare parts. We believe it is crucial to cooperate and discover root causes of problems. Our experts provide you with the whole package: expert advice, on-site visits, product testing, process optimization, short delivery times of parts and more. Flowrox offers you long-term solutions to maximize your production uptime, reduce downtime and lower total costs.

We operate on 6 continents and support our customers through a network of over 200 representatives.
